

Doctors for Global Health

18th Annual GENERAL ASSEMBLY

UC Berkeley | Berkeley, CA | August 9-11, 2013

Partnering for collective liberation:
intersections of health, art, & political change

Keynote Speakers:

Gopal Dayaneni

Organizer and communicator for justice with Movement Generation Justice and Ecology Project (and many other groups). Gopal will discuss strategies for building a people-powered movement to unite us for transformative change.

Raquel Gutierrez

Artist, performer, and cultural organizer, program manager in arts community engagement at Yerba Buena Center for the Arts. Raquel will discuss building community and the intersection of art and community organizing.

Workshops & Panel Discussions:

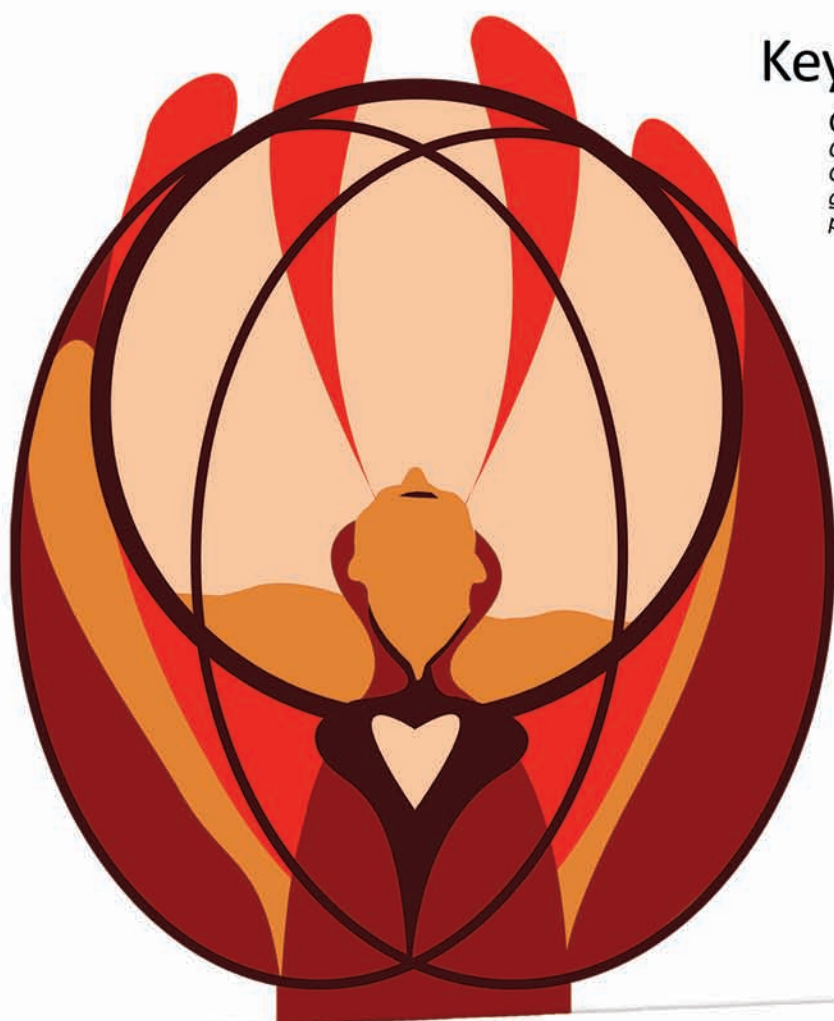

marginalized workers campaigns, popular education, community health promotion, social media & health, food justice, environmental justice

Other activities:

Friday Tour

Mission neighborhood murals in San Francisco with Precita Eyes Muralists

Friday & Saturday Evening Socials, Berkeley
Open to the public, details online

For more information & to register:
www.dghonline.org

Early bird discount if before May 25

Doctors for Global Health

*Promoting Health and Human Rights
"With Those Who Have No Voice"*

